

Casino Listings Terms & Conditions V 1.3

Last Modified: February 24, 2025 – Current

Affiliate Roulette Terms of Service

Our platform is dedicated to offering a dynamic and accessible directory for both operators and affiliates within the casino industry. We provide two service options for Affiliate Manager users: a Free Service with limitations and a Full Access Service offering comprehensive features. By using our directory, you agree to the following updated terms and conditions.

Account Options

Free Account:

- You may vet affiliates and read/write reviews. We will never charge for building trust and transparency.
- Access to Affiliate Roulette Academy.
- Access to Affiliate Roulette benefits.

Full Access (€29/Month, Paid Annually):

- All features available in the Free Account, plus
- On-site messaging.
- Access to affiliates' social media profiles, websites, and a dedicated account manager.
- The ability to add your casino brand with a 10% discount on the annual casino listing fee.

Casino Listings

All casino brand listings are now subject to an annual fee of €599 per brand. If you operate multiple brands, you can also choose:

- €1500 annually for 3 brands, or
- €5000 annually for unlimited brand listings.

Each casino brand must be submitted individually. Additionally, all casinos uploaded to the directory will receive:

- Free social media exposure for the brand.
- An option for an interview on The Inside Bet.

Uploading Your Casino Brand

Each listing must represent a single casino brand; please do not combine multiple brands in one submission. Once submitted, each brand will be evaluated and added to the directory upon successful payment of the annual fee.

Example:

If John, an Affiliate Manager, has a Free Affiliate Roulette account, he can still use the platform to search for affiliates, identify fraudulent operators to avoid, and read/write reviews on past partners. He will also have access to the Affiliate Roulette Academy and the benefits provided by our partners. However, he will not be able to message affiliates directly, access their social media profiles (e.g., Facebook or Twitter), or visit their website addresses until he upgrades to Full Access.

Sub-Affiliate Deals

Starting February 25, sub-affiliate deals are optional. If you choose to offer a sub-affiliate deal, you must provide a unique tracking link and agree to a revenue share percentage on earnings generated by affiliates signing up through our platform. The sub-affiliate agreement, if established, will continue for the lifetime of the affiliates acquired through our directory.

Commitment to Transparency and Accuracy

By listing your casino affiliate program with us, you agree to provide accurate and current information. You are responsible for updating your listing promptly if any details change.

Premium Upgrades

Users have the option to enhance their directory listings through our upgrade packages, which provide increased exposure and additional benefits. These upgrades are available for a one-time fee (see our upgrade options here).

By selecting an upgrade package, users agree to pay the specified fee and accept the following terms:

- Upgrades offer enhanced visibility but do not guarantee specific outcomes or results.
- Upon payment, the selected upgrade package is secured, and confirmation will be provided via email.
- Upgrade fees are non-refundable once confirmed; users may not cancel or downgrade their upgrade package after confirmation.
- We reserve the right to modify or discontinue upgrade packages at any time. Confirmed upgrades will remain unaffected, but future upgrades may be subject to different terms and pricing.

- We are not liable for any damages or losses incurred as a result of using, or the inability to use, the upgraded services—including, but not limited to, lost profits, data loss, or business interruption.
- Upgrade packages may be subject to availability and may vary based on geographical location or other factors.
- Selection of an upgrade package constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Acceptance of Terms

Submitting your casino affiliate program for inclusion in our directory constitutes your acceptance of these terms and conditions. Continued use of our platform signifies your agreement to any future modifications, which will be communicated in a timely manner.

Right to Amend Terms

We reserve the right to modify these terms and conditions as necessary. Any changes will be promptly communicated, and your continued participation in our directory implies acceptance of these adjustments.
